Treasurer Update	Claire gave an overview of the finances and advised our accounts for 23/24 have been independently audited by Rankins accountants. Because we're now a charity, the accounts require to be sent to HMRC and the Charities Commission. And thankfully no matters have been brought to attention. Accounts are available on the website for anyone to view. Our income comes from subscriptions, donations and income from concerts. If we didn't have income from donations and concerts, our subscriptions would just about see us balancing our books but that's all.
